

SEARCH

October 4, 2006

Form Follows Festival

Step right up, folks, and feast your eyes on oddities, ballyhoo, exotica, spectacle, and illusion of the highly anticipated, never-before-seen pre-spring collection of Form by Jerry Tam.

Surely you'll want to parade in front of the fun house mirrors in the new, freakishly amazing line of jackets, shorts, and tops. Every! Single! Item! in the collection is white, white, and, you guessed it, white!

In the first ring, we have the show pony in her jersey skeleton top and horse hair choker. In ring two, the gypsy's cotton twill bloomers and bomber jacket. Everywhere you look, the high-wire baton twirler dazzles in a scoop-neck crochet tank, the jester laughs in her linen shorts, and the clown follows suit in an envy-inducing knit party dress.

Witness the shiny linen vest, the silk dupioni pant, the hammered silk party skirt. Reach, touch, and grab quick – before stampeding crowds get to them.

Because it looks like it's going to be a bit of a circus.

Available at Eva, 227 Mulberry Street, between Prince and Spring Streets (212-925-3208). To see styles, go to jerrytam.com.

