Chloe Sevigny, Designer

A few months ago, we asked you which celebrity should design a clothing line.

Most of you answered Chloe Sevigny... and she must have read your comments.

The actress announced last night that she'd show a small collection for Opening Ceremony in New York and LA.

It'll debut with a presentation on September 4, the day before Fashion Week officially starts, and also the day when Jen Kao, Form, and Trovata unveil their Spring '08 lines.

We'll take photos for you, and try not to get them mixed up!

PS: We love this image from photographer Chris Buck so much. We hope he's shooting for Fashion Week.
