Editor's Choice - Fashion Week Daily - 11:40 am

In Any Shape or FORM

Be prepared to tingle your senses again this Fashion Week with beautiful clothes, gorgeous people, lots of bubbly...and this season, thanks to FORM, a little something extra. To complement their collection, the design collective created a video to show the inspiration behind their Spring '08 collection. Fashion and film? Too perfect. Shot by Richard Reens in Malaysia, Frankfurt, and NYC, and starring supermodel Chandra North, the video plays up the movement of the dresses with a mix of natural backgrounds with graphic additions. Not to mention the fact that Reens is the director responsible for The O.C., so we're counting on some angst and drama in between the LWDs.
