Jerry Tam's Form clearly rocks, and Glamwire believes we are definitely speaking to a future Hall Of Famer when we speak to Mr. Tam. "Always have fun. Always be creative," Jerry said to us minutes ago, refusing to be more creative (jest kidden!) while expounding on his philosophy from Form headquarters in Soho, where a really great sale is going on right now. His pre-spring line, which is shown above, can be seen on his site (www.jerrytam.com), and on our site by bringing your cursor to the top border of our show window...Form's pre-spring show is show #6. Head down to Soho and check out a young designer who we think is going a long way. T shirts from $100 . Pants around $550. Couture around $2000. www.jerrytam.com
